JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 8 April 1966

25X1 1. [] Met with Representative Porter Hardy, Jr., (D., Va.) and discussed with him the Foreign Affairs quarterly article "The Faceless Vietcong", by George Carver. Mr. Hardy thanked me for our courtesy and indicated that he was quite interested in the content of the article.

25X125X1 2. [] Received a call from [] Security, relaying a message that DIA had contacted his office with a request that he ascertain whether the Agency had any objection to the Army Map Service briefing six members of the House Appropriations Committee. I talked with Robert Michaels, of the House Appropriations Committee staff, about this request. In this and subsequent conversations with Michaels and Thomas, it was determined that the Army is planning to invite several members of this Committee to a briefing which will include information in special codeword categories. Since Michaels had been alerted to this and inasmuch as [] has no specific request at least until the individual members are identified, we will do nothing further on this at this time. (It is noted here that Chairman Mahon and Mr. Michaels are both aware of the Agency's desire to take the members of the CIA Subcommittee on a tour of the NPIC facilities.)

25X1 25X1 3. [] discussed the revised draft of the Rodino bill (H.R. 10400) with Joe Wehler and Ed Rudnick of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. A consensus was reached on further changes which should be made to strengthen the bill and eliminate those features to which the Justice Department had objections. All agreed on the language to be used and [] will prepare the revised draft and will clear it with Mr. Wehler before presenting it to Mr. Cline of the House Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization.
